NOTE:

To reserve the pool facilities for a private event, notice must be given to Inframark management via the Community website, under "Reservations" at least 10 days in advance of the date and not more than 60 days in advance of the date. Private functions must be reserved within normal pool facility hours (9:00am-10:00pm) and may not be made for more than 4 hours for any one event. Management will notify the community of the date and time of reservations via the community website, under "Reservations". Your account MUST be in good standing to reserve the pool.

Residents will be responsible for their guests and maintaining the condition of the facilities.

There is a sign for "Reserved" sign at the guard house to place outside the gate during the time of your pool reservation. It is your responsibility to return the "Reserved" sign to the guardhouse at the end of your reservation.

Additional security service, lifeguard service, catering service and janitorial services will not be provided by the HOA for any private event.
