Alaska House

Our community supports equal housing opportunity, including the Fair Housing Act as amended, a federal law applicable in all states that prohibits discrimination in housing based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, familial status or disability. In addition, many states and localities have their own local fair housing laws or ordinances, which may protect additional characteristics from discrimination in housing. Our community does not discriminate on the basis of any state or locally protected characteristics. Please note that these are our current rental criteria; nothing contained in these requirements shall constitute a guarantee or representation that all residents and occupants currently residing at this community have met these requirements. There may be residents and occupants that have resided at this community prior to these requirements going into effect. Additionally, our ability to verify whether these requirements have been met is limited to the information we receive from various resident credit reporting services used. Applicants are screened in the order applications are received. Please review this information before completing the application and paying the application processing fee, which is non-refundable. Falsification of information on the application will result in denial of residency and loss of application deposit as liquidated damages for our time and expense.

CRIMINAL HISTORY SCREENING

- Alaska House considers the entire application. We do not exclude individuals simply because of prior convictions and only consider records that are reportable under the Fair Credit Reporting Act and rules of Washington and the City of Seattle.
- All applicants (and current residents upon renewal if applicable) will be screened for criminal history and will be denied for convictions related to the manufacturing and/or distribution of methamphetamines.
- Convictions that can lead to denial of tenancy would be those that cause a person to register on the sex offender registry and, for federally funded housing, those for manufacturing and/or distribution of methamphetamines.
- Applicants or current residents appearing on the list of known terrorists and wanted fugitives as provided by the Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC), federal agencies (including the FBI or other state and local law enforcement agencies) will be denied. All applicants and current residents aged 18 and over will be screened through the OFAC.

All persons 18 and over intending to reside in the apartment must qualify in each of the above categories with the exception that the household's combined income may be used to satisfy the rent to earnings ratio.

Any person under the age of 18 intending to occupy the apartment must be identified on the application and listed on the lease or such person will otherwise be considered an unauthorized occupant.

OCCUPANCY STANDARDS

Occupancy of the apartment is limited to those persons listed on the lease and is based on the number of bedrooms in a unit. A bedroom is defined as a space within the premises that is used primarily for sleeping, with at least one window and a closet space. Occupancy shall not exceed two persons per bedroom plus one additional person per apartment unless otherwise directed by building code in the Seattle Municipal Code, safety regulations, or unless a written justification is provided.

Occupants under the age of 24 months at the time of lease signing or renewal are not counted toward maximum occupancy. Rooms such as a study or den may be considered a bedroom for purposes of maximum occupancy.

Definition of occupants - Occupants are immediate family members under the age of 18 or legal dependents as indicated on the most recent federal or state income tax form.

MINIMUM LEASE TERM

The minimum initial lease term for tax credit affordable housing is 12 months. The minimum lease term for HUD-assisted housing is 12 months.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Any of the above screening criteria may be modified as required by requirements of the applicable affordable housing program.
