

OLDE TOWNE IN KENWOOD

THE CUPOLA THAT RISES ABOVE OLDE TOWNE IN

Kenwood is a recognizable landmark in the popular northeast Cincinnati suburb. A replica of the cupola from the Governor's Mansion in Williamsburg, Virginia, it offers a hint of the sophistication and charm below its spire. The village greens, carriage lights, widow's walks, and weather vane high atop the cupola add to the colonial grace of Olde Towne in Kenwood.

Olde Towne in Kenwood's location couldn't be more ideal. With easy access to I-71 via Montgomery Road, all of Greater Cincinnati is accessible within minutes. The region's premier shopping mall, Kenwood Towne Center, is just across Montgomery Road. Additionally, Olde Towne in Kenwood is located in the Indian Hill School District, a national award-winner for excellence.
