Let's get on with some fun facts about the June solstice:

1. On the solstice, the Sun moves through the sky along its most-curved path. It rises and keeps veering to the right as it passes high overhead—quite different from the laser-straight path the Sun moves along in late March and late September
2. The solstice Sun stands directly over the Tropic of Cancer. In fact, that's how the Tropic of Cancer got its name. It's the northernmost line connecting all places on Earth where the Sun is ever straight up. That's because a few thousand years ago, the solstice happened when the Sun was in the constellation of Cancer the Crab.
3. The June solstice is when folks in the Northern Hemisphere see the highest Sun of the year. But did you know that the Sun's highest point is getting lower and lower over time? That's because Earth's tilt is slowly decreasing.
4. For those at the equator, the solstice is when the Sun is lowest in the sky.
5. The word "solstice" comes from the Latin words sol "Sun" and stitium "standing." On the summer solstice, the Sun's path stops advancing northward each day and "stands" still.

Ingredients

Crust

- 1 1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1/2 cup sliced almonds
- 8 tablespoons butter melted

Filling

- 8 ounces cream cheese
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 8 ounce container of Cool Whip
- 1 teaspoon almond extract you may also sub for vanilla extract

Fresh Fruit Topping

- 1/2-3/4 pound strawberries sliced
- 1 pint fresh blueberries
- 1 pint fresh raspberries

Instructions

Crust

Add all crust ingredients in a food processor and pulse until well combined. Press firmly into an 11-inch tart pan or 9x13 pan. If you want to leave this as a no-bake crust, set in fridge for 1 hour. If you would like to bake it, preheat oven to 350° and bake for 8-10 minutes or until lightly browned.

Filling

Using a mixer or electric beater, mix together the cream cheese and powdered sugar until light and fluffy. Stir in Cool Whip and almond extract until well combined. Spread evenly over prepared crust and top with fresh fruit. Let it set in the fridge for at least an hour. Cut into slices and serve.

Please know that the staff at The Preserve at Greenway Park is doing everything in our power to ensure that the pool and fitness center will open this summer. Unfortunately, the power to open these items is decided by corporate, as soon as we have word we will send out an email.

Thank you for being so wonderful and amazing residents!!!!
